

Citywide PTO April 12th 2011

- Finalists for the Melrose High School principal position have been chosen. They are Adam Baker, Assistant Principal of Marlborough High School, and Daniel Richards, Assistant principal of Instruction for Belmont High School.
- We discussed the various ways in which 5th grade activities and celebrations are handled at each elementary school. Principals do not wish to dictate school customs or attempt to standardize practices at the elementary schools.
- After school activities will be available for children who are NOT enrolled in the Education Station after school program.
- The district does keep statistics on students that leave after 8th grade and come back later. The data can be found here..
http://www.melroseschools.com/msc/full_committee_meetings/2011/Related%20Documents/MHS_Enrollment_and_Retention_Data.pdfm
- As part of their contract, Melrose teachers who live in other districts can enroll their children in the Melrose Public Schools.
- The SEEM Collaborative will be renting out the Beebe School next year.
- Melrose Excellence in Education is still looking for someone to take it over.

- May 12th – 15th "The King and I" will be presented at the MVMMS Center for the Performing Arts.
- Monday May 2nd, from 3:30-4:30 the Elementary Math Competition will be taking place.
- On June 10th and 11th, the Roosevelt school will present the play "Oliver".